

Workshops for Parents and Caregivers
Picky Eaters and Problem Feeders

Presented by: Bonnie Levin, OTR/L
Rochester Crittenton Hospital
Wednesday, June 27, 2018
7:00 – 8:30pm

This session will help you understand the various factors that affect eating. You will learn ways to reinforce your child for positive food behaviors. Strategies will be shared to help reduce challenging eating behaviors and make mealtimes more enjoyable. Bring questions!

Workshop for Parents and Babies
Tummy Time Boot Camp

Presented by: Susan Wit M.Ed., OT
Lynn Legg, PT

Royal Oak Addams Early Childhood Center
Tuesday, July 10, 2018
6:30 – 7:30pm

Every day parents are told their babies must spend time on their tummies. Not all babies are comfortable being on their tummies. Come join us with your baby to explore options for tummy time, positioning, activities and materials that help increase tolerance for tummy time. Learn why it is important and how it supports your child's development. This workshop is open to children who are not yet crawling on their hands and knees and their parents or caregivers.

Workshops for Parents and Caregivers
Helping Your Toddler Talk Series

Presented by: Chris Sundt, MA, CCC-SLP
Southfield Public Library
Mondays – 3 part parent series:
• July 16, 2018
• July 23, 2018
• July 30, 2018

6:30 – 8:30pm

Parents play a critical role in children's speech and language development. Since communication occurs all day long, the skills learned don't take extra time or add pressure to your already busy schedules. This workshop series will teach parents to become aware of their child's communication attempts, to respond effectively and to use strategies to help your child learn language.

Workshops for Parents and Caregivers
Help! My Child Won't Listen!

Presented by: Marian Orihel, M.Ed., IMH-E® (III)
West Bloomfield Township Public Library
Tuesday, July 17, 2018
7:00 – 8:30pm

What can we do to help our toddler listen to what we say? What causes tantrums? Are they a normal part of development? Why do so many tantrums occur around transition times? Most importantly, how can you survive the trying twos? Learn what is happening that makes the behavior of toddlers so challenging, how to prevent many tantrums, and ways to work through tantrums and transitions with less trauma for everyone! Bring questions!

Workshops for Parents and Caregivers
Toilet Training Basics

Presented by: Lynn Legg, PT
Oakland Schools Building – Waterford
Thursday, July 26, 2018
7:00 – 8:30pm

Teaching your child to use the toilet takes time, understanding and patience. Choosing the right time to start, recognizing the signs of readiness and the procedures to follow can be confusing. This presentation will provide an overview of toilet training and offer some helpful tips to use to toilet training your child.

Workshops for Parents and Caregivers
Making Sense of Sensory Systems

Presented by: Susan Wit M.Ed., OT
Oakland Schools Building - Waterford
Tuesday, August 7, 2018
7:00 – 8:30pm

Explore the sensory system and learn how children use familiar aspects of taste, touch, smell, hearing and vision as well as less familiar areas like vestibular, tactile and proprioceptive to learn and grow. We will provide strategies to help develop your child's sensory system that will easily fit into your daily routines. Learn to recognize signs of sensory difficulties and when to seek additional support.
