

Summer Learning Websites

Reading and Writing:

www.storylineonline.net

An on-line streaming video program where children are read books aloud. Each book includes accompanying activities.

www.nationalgeographic.com

Listen as National Geographic, a classroom magazine, is read aloud.

www.pbskids.org/lions/stories

Play games while learning letters, numbers, science, literacy, spelling and vocabulary.

www.bbc.co.uk/schools/wordsandpictures

High frequency words and pictures that support literacy are included in this website.

www.http/teacher.scholastic.com/activities/scrapbook/

Have fun with reader's response activities to analyze characters in a book.

www.bookadventure.com

Children create their own book lists and take multiple choice quizzes on the books they've read.

funschool.kaboose.com

This website has fun games from word puzzles and letter sounds to expanding your child's spelling and vocabulary.

www.dositey.com

Contractions, synonyms, antonyms, missing letter, book review and more can be found at this website.

www.sadlier-oxford.com

Vocabulary practice can be found at this website.

www.spellingcity.com

There are over 42,000 spelling words and you can customize sentences and definitions on this website. There are also printable handwriting worksheets for handwriting practice. You child can play games to reinforce spelling, word meaning, vocabulary, alphabetical order and parts of speech.

www.worksheetworks.com

Print worksheets for all subjects

www.playkidsgames.com/games/mathfact/mathFact.html

This site contains multiple levels of difficulty for the children in the areas of math, alphabet, vocabulary, memory, geography and puzzles.

www.bbc.co.uk/schools/index.shtml

This site provides links to sites in many subjects.

Math:

www.pbskids.org/lions/stories

Play games while learning letters, numbers, science, literacy, spelling and vocabulary.

www.mrnussbaum.com

This website allows your child to reinforce their knowledge of addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, fractions, bar graphs, telling time and rounding just to name a few.

www.funbrain.com/math/index.html

Here your child can "play baseball" using addition, subtraction, multiplication, division or a combination of them all.

www.toonuniversity.com

There are plenty of games for your child to have fun with while reinforcing their skills in addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, fractions, time, integers and decimals.

www.arcademickillbuilders.com

This website engages and motivates children with multiplayer and single-player games in all types of math.

www.funschool.kaboose.com

This website has fun games from "Action Fraction" to "Crazy Pattern Machine".

www.dositey.com

Addition, regrouping, telling time, order of operations, multiplication with regrouping and more worksheets and activities can be found at this website.

www.sadlier-oxford.com

Reinforce your child's skills in measurement, money, number theory, operations, place value, time, elapsed time and more.

www.pbskids.org/cyberchase/games/hardproblems

This website contains games on logic and problem solving.

www.mathfactcafe.com/view/?t=F

Create your own math worksheets for Grades 1-4.

www.worksheetworks.com

Print worksheets for all subject

www.free-training-tutorial.com/math-games.html

This site allows you to choose the math skills that your child needs to develop.