

STUDENT SECLUSION AND RESTRAINT

Professional staff members may need to restrain and seclude students under certain emergency circumstances. This will only be done in conformance with State law on Student Seclusion and Restraint.

Training will be provided to professional staff and the support staff determined appropriate by the Assistant Superintendent for Administrative Services. Training will be in accordance with the State law.

*Adopted January 21, 2008
Revised June 19, 2017*