Novi Public Library

OR

Wednesday, May 17, 2017

7:00 – 8:30pm

Oakland Schools Building

What causes tantrums? Can they be prevented? Are they a normal part of development? Why do so many tantrums occur around transition times? Most importantly, how can you survive the trying times and tearful trials of the toddlers and twos? Learn what is happening that makes the behavior of toddlers so challenging, how to prevent many tantrums, and ways to work through tantrums and transitions with less trauma for everyone!! Bring questions!

Helping Your Toddler Talk Series

Presented by: Chris Sundt, MA, CCC-SLP

February 3-Part Series – Wednesdays:

Rochester Crittenton Hospital

6:30 – 8:30pm

February 1, 2017

February 8, 2017

OR

April/May 3-Part Series – Wednesdays:

Southfield Public Library

6:30 – 8:30pm

April 26, 2017

May 3, 2017

May 10, 2017

Parents play a critical role in children's speech and language development. Since communication occurs all day long, the skills learned don't take extra time or add pressure to your already busy schedules. This workshop series will teach parents to become aware of their child's communication attempts, to respond effectively and to use strategies to help your child learn language.

Toilet Training Basics

Presented by: Lynn Legg, PT

Tuesday, February 7, 2017

7:00 – 8:30pm

Rochester Crittenton Hospital

OR

Wednesday, April 26, 2017

7:00 – 8:30pm

Farmington Community Library

Teaching your child to use the toilet takes time, understanding and patience. Choosing the right time to start, recognizing the signs of readiness and the procedures to follow can be confusing. This presentation will provide an overview of toilet training and offer some helpful tips to use when toilet training your child.

Picky Eaters and Problem Feeders

Presented by: Bonnie Levin, OTR/L

Wednesday, February 15, 2017

7:00 – 8:30pm

Farmington Community Library

This session will help you understand the various factors that affect eating. You will learn ways to reinforce your child for positive food behaviors. Strategies will be shared to help reduce challenging eating behaviors and make mealtimes more enjoyable. Bring questions!

Tummy Time Boot Camp

Presented by: Lynn Legg, PT

Susan Wit M.Ed., OT

Tuesday, March 21, 2017

6:30 – 7:30pm

Royal Oak Addams Early Childhood Center

This workshop is open to children who are not yet crawling on their hands and knees and their parents or caregivers.

Why is "tummy time" so important, and what are the benefits? What are the potential problems of not providing tummy time? How can we fit tummy time into our busy lives? Is there a connection between tummy time and positional torticollis? What can we do about it? Join us for a fun, informative workshop as we answer these questions and more. We will send you off with a variety of ways to introduce tummy time into your daily routines in ways that are enjoyable for you and your child.

Music and Movement For Young Children
