

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

This is not a SLCS sponsored event.

Saturday
July 13,
11:00 -12:00

Join a local social justice expert to read and discuss children's stories featuring civil disobedience and make a craft!

This program is designed for ages 4 to 12 with an adult but families of all ages are welcome. An adult is required to stay throughout the program to help guide children through the discussion.

Registration Requested.

This program is part of the 2019 "Let's Talk About" community conversations series in conjunction with the Neighborhood Library Association (<http://nlacommunityreads.weebly.com/>). Our goal is to engage youth in critical exploration of social justice topics through children's literature. Topics include poverty, bullying, mental health, immigration, gender, race, and more. Check out other NLA library's websites for their programs (Northville, Novi, Salem-South Lyon, Wixom and Walled Lake)
