

COUNSELING GROUP OPPORTUNITIES FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

Parents/Guardians,

Millennium Middle School offers a variety of support groups throughout the year to help meet the various needs of our students. Support groups offer students an opportunity to share and discuss issues openly with peers who often have similar concerns and life experiences. Student groups are designed to be supportive, short-term, and developmental.

Groups are small, confidential, and facilitated by a school counselor. The groups meet no more than once a week during the school day. Each group meets approximately four to six times. Meeting times rotate to ensure that students do not consistently miss the same class period. Students are responsible for any missed work.

Please print and fill out the permission form if you are interested in having your child participate in a group. If circumstances change during the school year and parents would like to enroll their child in a group, please let us know.

Groups will be offered during the school year based on need and demand.

Please feel free to contact the counselors at Millennium Middle School if you have any questions or concerns.

If circumstances change during the school year and parents would like to enroll their child in a group, please let us know.

Counseling Group Descriptions

1. Changing Families Group This group is for students whose families have experienced divorce, separation, or remarriage. Students have the opportunity to explore and discuss these changes with other students who have shared a similar experience.
2. Girls' Group This group will include students who would like help with self-esteem building and decision making skills. We will be discussing ways to improve self-worth and skills to make positive choices. This group also discusses how to deal with stress and anxiety.
3. Grief Group This group is for students who have experienced the loss of a close family member or friend.
4. Guys' Group This group is for students who would like to explore problem solving skills and positive decision making. Students will participate in icebreakers and team building activities. They may also explore topics such as academic success, anxiety, conflict management, friendship, peer pressure, self-esteem, and stress.

Please Note: Groups will be conducted based on need and demand. Groups may be conducted during 1st or 2nd semester.
